Barney Gross of Omaha, an old friend of A. G. Isaacson, was in the city the first of the week visiting the latter.

Prof. S. L. Clements of Chadron, formerly principal of the Alliance high school and now connected with the state normal at that point, was in Alliance Saturday, making the trip down with Prof. Bosder of the normal, in a car. Prof. Clements was much chagrined over the recent report in The Herald that the football game between Alliance and Chadron was marred by rough practices on the part of the Chadron boys. The Herald regrets that this mistake crept into its columns, which was due to statements made by the Herald's reporter by some of the members of the Alliance team on their return and which were taken in good faith by this paper.

Mrs. Nellie Wilson, city librarian, returned Wednesday morning from a trip to Lincoln, where she attended the state convention of librarians. After attending the convention she visited at Wymore with G. L. Griggs and family, formerly of Alliance. Mr. Griggs is division superintendent of the Burlington on the Wymore division of the Burlington. Mrs. Wilson was a guest on the special train which carried Candidate Charles E. Hughes through Nebraska, and had the pleasure of meeting Mr. and Mrs. Hughes.

An Alliance lady who has recently visited a number of towns in eastern Nebraska on her return remarked regarding the parking of autos in the center of the streets of nearly all the towns visited and suggested that this rule be enforced in Alliance. Her suggestion is a good one and could be taken up in this city with beneficial results.

The death of T. P. Owens, a longtime resident of York, Nebr., but formerly a resident of Alliance, occurred at his home Thursday night following a severe illness from chronic kidney trouble. The deceased had but recently returned from Rochester, Minn., where the Mayo Brothers had operated upon him. Mr. Owens for the past twenty years was engaged in the jewelry business at York. A wife, two daughters, an aged mother, two brothers and a host of friends are left to mourn his departure.

Regretted His Limitations. "What are you, anyway?" contemptuously inquired Mrs. Peck during the quarrel "a man or a mouse?" "A man," answered Henry Peck bitterly. "If I were a mouse I'd have you up on that table now, yelling for help."

Mrs. M. M. Hampton and E. A. Hall entertained twenty of the immediate relatives and friends of Miss Grace Fickel, sister of the hostesses, at a party held at 6:30 o'clock Wednesday evening, when the announcement was made known of the approaching marriage of Miss Fickel to Mr. Frank Herron of Deadwood, S. D. The table was beautifully decorated with pink and white cut flowers and ribbon. A beautiful white florentine lunch set occupied the center, while from the chandelier was suspended a white dove, from whose claws white ribbons were extended to the places of the twenty guests. At the end of each ribbon was a small envelope containing a card with the verse:

"A little bird told me the news I bring—Frank gave Grace a diamond ring."

Underneath the serve appeared two white doves with a ring between their mouths. The place cards were little brides with white illusion veils. The centerpiece was a bouquet of pink rosebuds. Miss Fickel has been employed at the Alliance National Bank for some time and has two sisters living here. Mrs. E. A. Hall and Mrs. R. M. Hampton. Mr. Herron is in the train service of the C. B. & Q.

The Woman's Club will meet this week, Friday, with Mrs. Bert Ponath. The literary program will be as follows: Rail call; Louisiana purchase; Mrs. Moter; Stories of that period; Mrs. F. Johnson; music, Mrs. W. J. Root.

Mrs. F. E. Holsten entertained on Saturday evening at a 6:30 o'clock dinner in favor of Mrs. L. A. Shawver, of Shoshoni, Wyo. Mrs. Holsten served a delicious four-course luncheon and the evening hours were spent at cards.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Was entertained at a luncheon and theatre party Saturday evening, the guests being the following: Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Barnett, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Reddish, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gantz, Miss Doris Young and W. R. Metz.

Tuesday afternoon Mrs. C. C. Smith, superintendent of the cradle roll of the M. E. church, gave a most enjoyable reception to the mothers and babies of the cradle roll. The little folks of the primary department gave a program of recitations and songs. Light refreshments were served.

Mrs. M. E. Johnson entertained on Thursday evening at a 6:30 o'clock dinner in honor of Mrs. L. A. Shawver, of Shoshoni, Wyo. A delightful five-course dinner was served to the guests, and the evening was spent in music. The guests were Mrs. Shawver, of Shoshoni, Wyo.; Mrs. Holliday of Denver; Mesdames Rowan,

The Freight Car Shortage Does Not Effect US

The United States today is facing the greatest shortage of freight cars in its history.

We foresaw this shortage months ago and prepared for it. Our coal bins are full. We are not affected, as are many others, but are in position to care for the wants of our customers promptly.

It is not necessary for us to substitute a poorer grade of coal for the regular grades which we handle.

If you want to be assured that you are getting the same high quality to which you are accustomed phone number five today.

Highland, A. Wiker, Slagle, J. A. Mallery, Norton, Worley, Holsten, F. W. Lester and Lloyd Johnson.

Some twelve ladies enjoyed the hospitality of Mrs. A. B. Sturgeon at her home Friday afternoon at a Kensington. A delightful four-course luncheon was served. The Halloween idea was carried out in the decorations.

The Woman's Guild will hold a special meeting next Wednesday at the Parish House. A short program will be given by the little folks. Entertainment and lunch, 25 cents.

Announcements of the marriage of Miss Mitchell of Denver, Colo., to Dr. McCartney of that place have been received by a few Alliance friends. Miss Mitchell is a niece of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Mitchell of this place and resided in Alliance until about three years ago. Miss Mitchell has many friends in Alliance who will be pleased to hear of her marriage.

Mrs. Roy Beckwith entertained the T. O. T. Club Thursday afternoon.

On Friday evening, October 13, the Woman's Club held a reception for their husbands, the Alliance School of Music faculty and the city school faculty, at the home of Mrs. F. D. Campbell, 602 Laramie avenue. The entertainment for the evening consisted of guessing contests. The first guessing contest was a musical contest, Miss Alta Young winning the prize; the second was a contest representing names familiar to stageland, Miss Georgia Canfield winning the prize. After the contests a dainty two-course luncheon was served. The ladies appointed a small group at a time to be served in a cozy well-decorated room, arranged especially for that purpose. The out-of-town guests were Mrs. Holliday of Denver, Mrs. Shawver of Shoshoni, Wyo., and Mrs. Warrick of Scottsbluff.
